

2017-2018 School Meal Prices

Sequim School District No 323

May 15th, 2017

2017-2018 School Meal Prices

- The Healthy, Hunger-Free Kids Act of 2010 requires that schools “provide...sufficient funds...for meals served to students not eligible for free or reduced price meals.”
- The intent is to ensure that federal funds are not used to offset the cost of meals for students that are not eligible for free or reduced price meals

2017-2018 School Meal Prices

- Schools do this in one of two ways:
  - Charge an amount for full price meals adequate to cover the cost of serving full price meals
  - Contribute district resources sufficient to cover the cost of serving full price meals
- Board Procedure 6700P requires “any meal [price] increase shall occur with approval of the board at the beginning of each year.”
- The District had a $.10 meal price increase across all categories for this current year (2016-17)
